RESOURCES

A diverse and inclusive community is an integral part of your experience in the College of Agriculture and at Purdue University. Here is information about resources related to culture, diversity, inclusivity and social services available to you as a Boilermaker.

PURDUE AGRICULTURE OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL PROGRAMS

Purdue Agriculture's Office of Multicultural Programs (OMP) serves as a resource to the college, sponsoring educational and outreach initiatives and community building efforts and providing assistance to students, faculty and staff.

Agricultural Administration Building, Rm. 105
615 Mitch Daniels Blvd., W. Lafayette, IN 47907
omp@purdue.edu 765-494-9586

SUPPORT FOR SUCCESS PROGRAM

The Support for Success Program was designed to provide active and engaging support for students to achieve their academic and career goals. Students in this program can access professional development seminars and a leadership retreat each semester. It also focuses on providing social activities throughout the year to foster community and belonging.

CENTERS

ASIAN AMERICAN AND ASIAN RESOURCE AND CULTURAL CENTER (AAARCC)

The AAARCC was founded in 2015. As a unit under the Office of Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging, the AAARCC's mission is to weave diverse Asian and Asian American experiences into the fabric of campus life. The AAARCC is open for everyone and there are multiple ways to get involved — with initiatives and programming in the intersections of pedagogy (teaching and learning opportunities), cultural arts and performances, as well as advocacy work.

BLACK CULTURAL CENTER (BCC)

Founded in 1969, the BCC has grown into a vibrant force for collective cultural enrichment and intellectual growth. Through programming and services concerning art, history, and cultural understanding, the BCC brings together the wonderful diversity of the Purdue community while nurturing and presenting the rich heritage of the Black and African American experience.

LATINO CULTURAL CENTER (LCC)

¡Todos son bienvenidos! (All are welcome!) is the guiding philosophy of the Latino Cultural Center (LCC). The LCC was established in 2003 as a place to gather, learn, share and support Latino cultures. The LCC seeks to enhance diversity through education and programming as it also acts as a home away from home among Latinos at Purdue. The center sponsors educational, social, professional and cultural events throughout the year.

NATIVE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL CENTER (NAECC)

Representing over 65 Indigenous nations at Purdue, the NAECC provides a home away from home for Native American, Alaska Native and Native Hawaiian students, faculty and staff. Its mission is to develop new generations of educated students who will make positive contributions to their tribal communities and educate non-Native audiences about Indigenous cultures, histories and traditions.

LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL, TRANSGENDER, AND QUEER (LGBTQ) CENTER

The LGBTQ Center engages the Purdue community on LGBTQ issues through such exciting events as the distinguished lecture series, advocacy for equitable access and a discrimination-free environment, as well as numerous training opportunities. The center is also a dedicated Safe Zone— a welcoming and affirming campus location for all regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression.
